

Throughout the Day

Do your best to follow the lesson plans and carry out the assigned duties left by the permanent teacher. Over 75 percent of permanent teachers report that they spend at least 45 minutes preparing lesson plans and materials for substitute teachers. Having invested both time and energy in these plans, permanent teachers feel very strongly about having them carried out.

On the other hand, you may enter a classroom where you are unable to locate the lesson plans or necessary materials.